The Weimer Family

Reaching the World Through Iceland since 1999

We have had several visitors come to Iceland and visit the work this year. In March, Pastor Lamar Ard with his wife Tanya and daughter Holly visited from Cornerstone Baptist Church in Missouri City, Texas, for almost two weeks. I am always thankful for supporting pastors who come to see their investment at work. We had a wonderful time of fellowship. We are thankful for their faithful support of the work in Iceland since 1998. The photo above is with the Ard family and our international group of people. The international ministry has many asylum seekers in Iceland. Because they are often rejected and sent away, this ministry is very fluid.

The photo, below right, is with the Ard family and our youth ministry. The children in our youth ministry grow up in homes and in a society that is completely removed from the faith. They go to godless schools. We plead with the parents to come to church, seemingly, to no avail. Iceland is not just a cold climate, it is spiritually very cold.

We are gearing up for summer camp July 8th-13th. Both sponsorship and prayer are needed for camp costs and preparation. We also need volunteers to help with support staffing at camp, i.e. kitchen, cleaning, etc.

Our small teen group, photo below, went with us to the mall for a hide-and-seek activity. It was a good time to show them how to have fun without drinking and doing stuff like 'other teens do.'

Our hope is that through these open doors of ministry, that God's Word will impact lives, souls will be saved, and discipleship will take hold. We remain steadfast in the work and are committed to be a light in Iceland. Our family constantly needs your prayers. It is an unspoken rule of writing prayer letters: "Be positive and not a burden when writing." Reality is not so pretty. We undergo deep trials of our faith and Satanic attacks that try the very fabric of our faith. Suffice it to say that this letter is late due to some of those trials. Thank you for holding us up in prayer as we strive to reach a very lost nation with the Gospel of Christ. To those who stand beside us in the work to reach the world, thank you! It is an honor to serve Jesus in Iceland.
